

Home and School Agreement

Autumn 2018

Children have the right to an education: UNCRC Article 28

Children have the right to achieve their potential UNCRC Article 29

The school will aim to:

- Create and maintain positive relationships with all parents
- Keep parents well informed about all aspects of their child's achievement, well-being and development
- Provide guidance and information about ways in which parents can support their child's learning
- Communicate appropriately with parents through a wide range of media: email, text, website and newsletter
- Report any adverse comments about children, staff or the school posted on social network sites (such as Facebook) to the relevant authority, which may be treated as libellous

The parents will aim to:

- Make sure that children arrive at school on time
- Treat staff in a respectful manner
- Support the school's policies, including: Uniform Policy, Behaviour Policy, Anti-Bullying Policy and E-safety Policy
- Support their child with home learning tasks and ensure it is returned within the set time
- Attend consultation evenings with the class teacher
- Avoid holidays in term time
- Keep the school up-to-date with contact details, including mobile phone numbers and email addresses
- Be respectful and considerate towards members of the local community eg. parking considerately in the neighbourhood
- Work in partnership with the school to develop positive attitudes towards those from different ethnic minorities
- Foster a positive attitude towards education and the school and use discretion when discussing issues or grievances in front of children, as these may have a negative effect on their outlook
- Ensure that children only bring fruit for a snack at breaktimes and water to drink in class
- Ensure that their child follows rules and regulations of social networking sites such as Facebook, where children should not have their own page until the age of 13
- Speak to school staff about any concerns. No adverse comments about children, staff or the school should be posted on social network sites such as Facebook

The child will aim to:

- Follow the class 'Charter', 'Assembly Charter' and school rules
- Respect others' culture, race, feelings, beliefs and values
- Tell a member of staff if they are worried or unhappy
- Ensure that they will take home all school letters and take part in home learning activities
- Take good care of school equipment, buildings and surroundings

Together we will:

- Value one another as partners with our children.
- Listen to and support each other in our aim to provide the best education for our children.

GLUSBURN PRIMARY SCHOOL VALUES AND ETHOS STATEMENT

We want our school to be a place where everybody feels welcome.

We want all our children to feel safe and happy so that they can enjoy their learning and achieve to their full potential.

We will provide a stimulating learning environment, offering a variety of exciting learning opportunities and experiences within a broad and balanced curriculum.

We aim to give children the best possible start to their education by developing their independence, curiosity, imagination and desire to learn.

We will promote our common values and value our differences within the school and the wider community.
