

Class 9's Charter – 2016/2017

Articles 12, 15, 16, 17, 19, 23, 24,28,29,31 of the UNCRC - Children have the right to:

Voice their opinions, especially on things that concern them.

Be protected from violence, abuse and neglect.

An education that helps them reach their full potential, develops individual personality and talents, provides high quality resources, that uses discipline which respects human dignity and encourages a respect of the environment and resources

Their cultural differences being respected

Join in a wide range of activities

Relax and play

Access to clean water and nutritious food

Access to information from the mass media

Student Responsibilities:

Listen and follow instructions

Go to the toilet at a convenient time, at breaks or a suitable time in the lesson if necessary

Join in with activities provided and do our best

Ask when stuck or need help

Be a buddy not a bully

Adult Responsibilities:

Be fair, helpful, kind, patient and understanding

Inspire, challenge and support

Encourage and allow pupils to make responsible choices

Be approachable

Everyone's Responsibilities:

Respect the rights of others

Listen to others and respect their views

Be a good role model

Look after resources

Keep the school environment clean and tidy

Keep each other safe and free from harm

Reduce waste of food, water and electricity

Allow teachers to teach and pupils to learn without distraction

To tell the truth NOT tales

To have a positive attitude towards work

To have a positive attitude towards each other