Fairtrade fortnight 27th February – 10th March 2017

As usual the school will be supporting Fairtrade Fortnight. A letter will be presented to parents from Mrs Donald our Fairtrade Queen giving further details. Two dates for the diary in the meantime: Friday 3rd March Fairtrade quiz night; Friday 10th March Fairtrade coffee morning.

Table tennis champion

Well done to Hallie Fitton who won the North Yorkshire Under 11's table tennis competition this week. She is a very talented table tennis player and we are very proud that she is a Glusburn pupil. Her coach, Mr Chipman, describes her as: dedicated, hardworking and a joy to coach!

EYFS Transport

The EYFS team would like to thank all their visitors this week. The children have been truly inspired and this has been reflected in their inspirational and independent learning. Thank you to Billy's dad who taught the children all about his job building, maintaining and demolishing bridges. Thank you to Dylan's Grandma who brought in two special cars for the children to explore. This was a magical experience for all including the staff! Thank you to our very own Isabelle Addy and her family for sharing their passion about biking. We loved watching you speed round the playground on your motorbike and we are sure many children will be adding a bike to their birthday lists. The visits truly brighten our curriculum so please if you have interesting hobbies that you would like to share, please speak to a member of the EYFS team. Thank you to all the families that have donated £3 for the planetarium. Donations are still being accepted, just hand in to a member of EYFS staff.

Goodbye!

Today we say goodbye to two members of staff. Miss Shaw / Miss Mctigue

Thank you Miss Shaw, beavering away in the staffroom on behalf of us all, sometimes in the intense heat beneath the skylights! You have done a great job, and no job was ever too small or insignificant. Thanks for being so composed and super productive!

Thank you Miss Mctigue for the support you have given to class 8. You have gone about your business professionally and calmly, and have been a real asset to Mrs Donald and the children. I wish you well on future work in schools.

World Book Day: 2nd March 2017

World Book Day is on Thursday March 2nd. A day when we all dress up as a character from a book and celebrate our love of reading. We can't wait to see the children's wonderful costumes - they never fail to amaze us.

During the day, the children will be taking part in many reading related activities. In addition, Key Stage 1 children will have the chance to purchase a second hand book for 20p, and Key Stage 2 will be holding book swaps with their class mates. Think carefully about which book (or books) you bring in to swap, as swapsies are forever!

Over the half term holiday it would be great if you could take photos of your family reading in an unusual or unconventional place. Bring the photo into school by Tuesday 28th February for us to display.

And finally, remember to join us at 3pm on the 2nd March for Snuggle up and Read to round off the day.

You're great and the world should know about it.

Dear Miss Hanson,

It's official. Your school is a Red Nose Day Super School. What does that mean? Well, you have gone above and beyond to fundraise for us and we want to recognise your amazing efforts. Which is why we have sent you this little round plaque to hang in your reception area to let everyone know how proud we are of you.

We think you're truly brilliant. We couldn't do what we do without you. Thank you.

Sir Lenny Henry

P.S. Please read this letter out to everyone in the staffroom and assembly and give yourselves a huge pat on the back.

Did you Nose?

Since Comic Relief began, with your help we've provided life-saving vaccines to over 2.4 million children and helped more than 1.2 million people into formal and informal education. *

The money you raised for Red Nose Day has helped make a huge difference to countless people's lives. Thank you.
