Weekly Newsletter: Week ending 6th January 2017

Welcome back

I hope you all had a wonderful and restful Christmas holiday, and that you are all still managing to keep your New Year's resolutions! As we invite in the New Year we also welcome some staff changes at school. We have a new member of staff, Mrs Daniel, who has been appointed as a 'Playleader' at lunchtime, organising children's games and activities over the lunchtime period. She will also be working in the school office each morning. There has also been a promotion for Mrs Apreda who will now be our Senior Midday Supervisor, organising children and staff in the hall each lunchtime.

Miss Turner has taken on the role of General Teaching Assistant in class 9 each morning, following Mrs Wheeler's retirement at the end of last term, whilst Mrs Wilson will be working each afternoon as a General Teaching Assistant between classes 8 and 9.

I wish them all well in their new roles and that they enjoy being part of our school team.

Snuggle-up and Read

Join us on Friday 13th January from 3:00pm to share a book with your child in class – snuggle-up and read!

Open Mic Night: Friday 27th January: 7:00pm – 10:00pm.

Following the Christmas Season and the many New Year's Resolutions of clean living and detoxing, we will be holding a Glusburn School Open Mic Night: The January Retox. Blow away the cold winter blues and the misery of failing your New Year promises, by coming along to our musical Open Mic Night.

Hosted by parents and musicians Gaz Keeton and Steve Wilson, we invite you to join us for an evening of music in the school hall. The previous event held in May saw staff perform, as well as parents and the resident band.

Parents are welcome to bring an instrument, dancing shoes, singing voices or even just a bottle of Prosecco!

We would love to see you perform, so get practising as a solo artist or group and get January fully 'retaxed' with fun! Let us know on the night if you want to perform.

Bring your own beer or wine.

Snacks and soft drinks will also be for sale.

Adults only, tickets £5 in advance

All proceeds to Friends of Glusburn School for resources
