FOGs after school Cake Fair

Thank you to our FOGs team and all parents who visited the Cake Fair after school last Friday; fantastic support for school events as usual – really appreciated! Together we raised £153.50. The next event is the pamper evening on the 25th May – see the poster at the end of this newsletter.

Glusburn Pupils Create a Spectacle (Taken from the Craven Herald online)

PUPILS at Glusburn Community Primary School created a spectacle – and they were delighted. Key Stage One youngsters produced designs of eggs wearing spectacles in a competition organised by Airedale Opticians at Cross Hills. Entries were displayed in the window of the Main Street outlet and on the company's Facebook page. A spokesman for Airedale Opticians said: "The aim of the competition was to highlight the importance of children's eye tests and we were delighted with the response.

"Designs ranged from chicks bursting out of eggs to ninja rabbits.

"Not only were the eggs voted for by patients, parents and passers-by, but also shared online, with over 20,000 views and some designs receiving more than 300 votes!"

Prizes of sunglasses and Easter eggs were presented to the winners. The designs are still available to view on the Airedale Opticians Facebook page.

The winners were:

Online: Jackson class 5, Harry class 7, Maxwell class 6.

In the shop window: Seren class 5, Sophia class 5, Iris class 5, Louis class 7, Charlie class 5.

Evie Eccles (Year 5) Fundraising Champion

Evie Eccles is doing the 3 Peaks challenge on Saturday 20th May to raise funds for Aidan's Elephants.

Her aunty and uncle sadly gave birth to their sleeping baby boy Jack on the 27 March 2017 at Airedale Hospital. The Charity that she is raising funds for supply handmade memory boxes to four departments within Airedale Hospital. These boxes contain relevant information to register births and deaths, how to plan a funeral and where to look for support. Along with bonnets and booties they also include a clay impression kit and an inkless wipe kit to capture baby's hand and footprints.

Her parents and school are very proud of her, she has raised over £600 for this charity.

She has been in training (pictured below with her dad) for the last few weekends and recently completed Wherside and Ingleborough. If you would like to donate, follow the link below:
